At Peaceful Children Montessori School:

- Children and young people are offered a Catholic Montessori education using the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd as a method of faith formation.
- Children learn and grow in a prepared environment with multi-sensory materials and trained Montessori teachers.
- Instructional methods are varied according to the needs of the individual child.
- Children and young people learn that they can make a difference in the world, and that what they do matters because they are part of God's plan.
